2nd XV Match Report 17 October 2009

Lowestoft and Yarmouth RFC 2nd XV – 0      Beccles 2nd XV – 29

Lowestoft and Yarmouth came out strong in the first half with great tackles and a strong pack, driving Beccles off the ball. Beccles seem to have the upper hand for the majority of the first half with pinning L&Y down, forcing them to make some great tackles and test the steel of the L&Y defence.

Beccles broke the line with an unconverted try from Ex-Lowestoft and Yarmouth Hooker Jonathan Pitts. This was a turning point for L&Y, tightening up and forcing Beccles back into their half putting the pressure on the Beccles pack with some great scrummaging from the forwards pack, even though all this effort was put in, L&Y could not manage to push for a try, even with some great forwards play from Captain Lee Protheroe driving up from the halfway line, supported by Alan Roberts, Wayne Hall, Andy Chittenden and Callum Barber.

The second half came round with Tom Fox coming on to the field for Michael Apostel. The story was much the same with L&Y putting in 110% of the effort but not coming out with a score. L&Y moved forward and drove Beccles back into their half with some powerful play from the forward Beccles not liking the pressure from our forwards. In the end Lowestoft and Yarmouth not coming out with a score or a win, but still feeling positive about the season!

Man of the Match Wayne Hall.
