Employers like to employ people who give something back! So why not get involved with something to help the young people of Lowestoft and Yarmouth.

As a volunteer with Lowestoft and Yarmouth R.F.C., you can expect:

- The chance to use your talents and skills to benefit grassroots rugby
- The chance to work as part of a team
- A chance to meet people, make new friends and keep active
- To be given clear information as to what is expected of you
- To receive advice on how to carry out your work
- Opportunities to undertake appropriate training
- A response to your queries, requests and complaints promptly
- Recognition and thanks
- To be treated with respect and consideration by volunteers and staff
- Reimbursement of any reasonable out of pocket expenses incurred in the course or volunteering
- Equal opportunities
- Health and safety advice and guidance
- To be covered by insurance
- Respect for your right to privacy. (Let us know if you do not want your volunteering to be publicized)

As a Rugby volunteer, you are in a position of trust. You might be supervising young people or be responsible for equipment. We ask you to preserve the Rugby Football Union and its member clubs' good name by:

- Supporting the aims and objectives of the Club and the R.F.U.
- Knowing and keeping to the policies and procedures of the Club and R.F.U.
- Being open minded and honest in your dealings with us
- Treating fellow volunteers and staff with courtesy and respect
- Reaching a shared understanding of you role and commitment and telling your club if you wish to change the nature of your contribution
- Informing the Community Rugby Department of any improvements that can be made to the service and support that you receive.
